Gives Sermon During Services at Church; Uses Parable

Evangelist Calvin R. Choate, who is preaching at the revival services at the First Friends church gave a forceful message at the service last evening.

His sermon related to the church as to her responsibility and commission to seek the lost of earth.

The scripture used by the evangelist was on the parable of the woman and the lost coin.

The speaker declared "The setting of this parable is very striking as the master placed it between the parable of the lost sheep and the lost son."

"It shows clearly the dispensation of the church for Christ as the Good Shepherd who came to seek and to save that which was lost," he said. "The church is to follow with the same earnest seeking until she finds God's own coin, man, that has had the stamp of his creator's very image and likeness."

Unless the enigma in her seeking depends on the illumination of the Holy Spirit, as the woman depended on the light of her candle, the lost will not be found. The broom of social service and church activity without the Holy Spirit will only sweep deeper the precious coins of human souls with the dust of self-righteousness and formality.

For the past five years Rev. Choate has been pastor of a rural church at Greenleaf, Idaho. He has been very successful there, having a Sunday attendance of nearly 400. Often during the last years he has been called upon by delegations as well as being called to other places to tell the secret of his success.

Beer Is Fading Away In France

Toulon, Oct. 18.—Beer is fading fast away in France.

The hot summer has induced so much absorption of this cooling liquid that in some places there is no more to be had.

Toulon, especially beer loving as is its citizenry, is suffering from an excessive thirst for beer. Some of the cafes are altogether without. Others are adorned with cheering placards happily declaring "More Beer!"

The summer has been so oppressively hot here that wines and cocktails were abandoned for icy draughts of beer.

French brewers are planning a much more extensive output of the Tonic national drink for next summer. They claim this summer is an indication of a growing taste for beer on the part of the French and that this country may yet rival Germany in the making and drinking of malt liquors.

States Are Warned About Hoover 'Gift'

Denver, Oct. 18.—When the 11 western "public land" states consider President Hoover's proposal to cede them surface rights to the lands, they are warned to take into consideration the fact that the government spent a half-billion dollars on public lands as against a 200 million dollar revenue in 1927, according to Dr. Hubert Work, former secretary of the interior, now living in Denver.

"So far as our remaining public lands are concerned they are valuable mainly for grazing and timber. Three times I had a bill before the senate to give grazing rights on long term leases at a cost merely to cover administration expense. I intended that to include cost of supplying water on hundreds of grazing areas that are now too isolated from water supply to be of any use to stockmen."

"That would have been true conservation and development."

Horses Outnumber Autos In Wyoming

Cheyenne, Oct. 18.—Old Dobbins is making his last and most protracted stand in the State of Wyoming.

A recent government survey shows that while automobiles out-number horses almost two to one over the country, the situation is reversed in Wyoming.

Records of the board of livestock commissioners show the state's horse population to be 147,868, while the number of automobiles is only 56,698.

In only two counties do automobiles outnumber horses. Natrona county had 8,605 motor cars on Jan. 1, 1929, against 4,849 horses. Sweetwater county had 3,638 autos compared to 1,181 horses.

The automobile is more lucrative to the state, however. Automobiles were taxed approximately $570,000 last year, while the total assessed valuation of the horses is only $359,247.

Colorado's Laws
Punish to Judges

Denver, Oct. 18.—Colorado judges are puzzling over the habitual criminal law, passed by the last state legislature. The jurists fear the law is ambiguous and will have to be referred to the State Supreme Court for a standardized interpretation.

The crimes enumerated for which a life term is given at fourth offense are murder in any degree, confidence game, voluntary manslaughter, forcible rape, robbery and all narcotics felonies.

The judges are uncertain whether the act means that a criminal may commit the same offense twice to be listed as a second offender. The same problem applies to third and fourth offenders.

The judges believe that the intention of the act was to apply to any of the offenses, but it is said the law reads as if the criminal has to repeat the same offense four times before it would be given a life term. Thus it would be possible for a man to be convicted of all the crimes specified, yet not be a second offender in the eyes of the law.

England Now Has Tramp's Newspaper

Birmingham, Eng. Oct. 18.—The beggars and nobes of Birmingham now have their own newspaper. The title is "Abraham-man's News." "Abraham-man" is English slang for a vagabond.

The newspaper is a single sheet of typed matter, produced on a cheap duplicator. The price is "one flash"—one cent.

Despite its vast circulation, this newspaper is completely unintelligible to the ordinary citizen. It is written in a jargon that only those belonging to the craft can possibly understand.

It contains a mine of information for the "blackberry-swaggerer" (hawker) and other itinerant visitors. The best of the "Woolholes" (porches) are given and all the "gamy vials" (towns where the police discourage beggars) and hawkers are given. The "scrivener" (pavement artist) is told where he can hire chalked pictures for a "susherton" (five shillings per day). The "gicak" (beggar who is "quibsy") (drinker) and cannot find "downy earwig" (clergyman) is enlightened by cryptic signs of the whereabouts of the nearest "dolly shop" (illegal pawnbroker) where he can "jug" (pawn) whatever portable property he may have gathered in his travels, and so on.

The news is to be sold in New England do not amount to much in luxury off a "two-eyes steak" (skipped) or a German duck or sheep's head.

In fact no "maunderer" (tramp) or "ignor" (door-to-door hawkers) need "clim" (starve) or do without "chow-chow" (food) if he follows the many "patterans" (private marks which tramps make on or near the doors of generous housekeepers) indicated in this newspaper.

Panhandle Makes Much Carbon Black

Amarillo, Texas, Oct. 15.—More than half of the world's supply of carbon black is now produced in the Panhandle section of Texas where the supply of natural gas is practically unlimited.

A score of plants owned by a dozen companies now consume about 450,000,000 cubic feet of residual gas per day, making approximately 675,000 pounds of carbon black. Carbon black has many uses, chiefly in the manufacture of automobile tires, rubber goods, printing ink and paint pigments. The demand has been increasing rapidly and there appears to be no let up in the need for black by large industries.

In the manufacture of automobile tires 40 per cent of the rubber in a tire is carbon black. Use of carbon in tires has increased the life of the tire to a great extent.

Only a few years ago tire manufacturers found that carbon black, mixed in certain proportions with rubber, hardened that substance so that it prolonged the life of the tire. This led to an increase in the demand for black.

Heretofore the center of the carbon black industry has been in Louisiana. Before that it was in West Virginia. However as the gas supply fell off or legislation in these states imposed hardships on the manufacturers the scene of operations shifted.

College Factory Aid For Students

Oakland City, Ind., Oct. 14.—The pen will be considerably mightier than the sword for students of Oakland City college here. For Dr. W. P. Dearing, college president, has established a fountain pen factory in which students may earn enough money to pay their way through college.

Students who so desire may work in the factory a part of each day. Beginners will receive 20 cents an hour, which will be doubled within six weeks, while more skillful piece work will pay as much as 25 cents to a dollar an hour. President Dearing expects weekly earnings of students will run from $10 to $25.

Inasmuch as Oakland City college operates on a year-round basis, students will have more time in which to do outside work by carrying fewer subjects.

The fountain pen company is capitalized at $60,000 and equipment valued at $25,000 has been installed.

MARKET OPENING
New York, Oct. 18.—A heavy accumulation of selling orders in pivotal industrial issues brought sharply lower quotations for the main body of stocks at the opening of the stock market today.

United States Steel opened at 216, a decline of 2½ points from last night's close. A block of 5,400 radio changed hands at 84, down 4½. Montgomery Ward, one of yesterday's weak spots was down 2½ at 132½. American Telephone and Telegraph dropped 5½ to 268 on a block of 5,400 shares.

Oils as a group stood out in striking contrast to this visible downward movement. Standard Oil of New Jersey, after opening fractionally higher at 81½, moved up to 82½, an advance of ½. Konjola Proved Deadly Foe To Complication

For years I suffered with stomach trouble," said Mr. R. H. Morse, 715 Third Street, N.E. (Canton) Ohio. "I had to be very careful what I ate. Gas formed and I suffered dreadfully. Pains in my chest, headaches and dizzy spells were common. Constipation became a chronic ailment I steadily lost weight and strength."

"Several people recommended Konjola to me and I decided to try it. My system was cleaned and invigorated. My digestion was restored and bowels were regulated. Now I can eat three hearty meals a day without distress. I have gained in weight and strength. All my troubles are gone and I owe this new and glorious health to Konjola."

DOHENY TELLS OF FALL LOAN

Oil Baron Relates Tale Of Friendship Over Many Years

Washington, Oct. 18.—One "old friend" came to the aid of the other in the criminal branch of district supreme court today.

Benign and benevolent in appearance, 74-year-old Edward L. Doheny, multi-millionaire oil operator, took the stand in the Fall bribery trial and explained the $100,000 he gave former Secretary of Interior Albert B. Fall at the time he acquired a lease on the Elk Hills naval oil reserve as a "mere loan."

A romantic story of the old days in the west, when men braved death in quest of gold and oil, prefaced Doheny's explanation of the transaction which the government contends was a bribe.

Under guidance of Frank J. Hogan, chief defense attorney, the pink-faced, white-haired oil baron told how he and Fall prospeted together 43 years ago and struck up a friendship that has come down through the years.

It was this friendship that prompted the man whose millions run into several score to make an unsecured loan of a mere $100,000, he told the jury.

Preceding him on the stand had been his wife, who attested to the same story of the $100,000 transaction. Mrs. Doheny had explained the signature had been torn from the note Fall gave for the money simply as a precaution to save the aged defendant from the possible embarrassment of premature foreclosure should she and her husband be killed simultaneously in a railroad accident.

Hollywood Notes

Hollywood, Oct. 18.—Burr McIntosh took off his makeup at the end of making Universal's "Skinner Steps Out" and completed 44 years as an actor.

One reason he was placed in the cast was because he had been 43 years and some months in the business of whiling away the hours for the general public. For one thing, the role called for a gentleman of Mr. McIntosh's age. Then again, there was that vocal ability that all good actors must have and that a lot of good film folk must acquire.

It would be ordinary to recite that McIntosh had passed through a good many "phases" of the drama in his time. That's so obvious that anyone, even a movie correspondent could duly note it.

What seems important, however, is that when a really good stage actor takes on a pantomimic role before the camera and makes movie history, it is about time to recognize the voice ability of a legitimate stage product and give the boys a chance until the transition screen can be fully effected.

William Fox publicity staff members were sunk in gloom when they heard of the spectacular and fatal crash of the air liner, "City of San Francisco" in the New Mexico mountains recently. A last minute change in orders had held a company, filming "The Lone Star Ranger" with George O'Brien in Hethow just long enough to make it being on the scene of the crash with a regiment of Indian trackers and film aviators.

Director William Beaudine of First National productions, and Mrs. Beaudine, rewarded for doing four pictures on schedule and mostly, are to enjoy a trip to Europe right soon. But Beaudine will finish his story "The Dark Swan" to keep his hand in.

Florida is to have an invasion of fruit flies from Hollywood. The cast of the Inspiration production "Hell Harbor," including Jean Hersholt, Lupo Velez and other notables, is taking the Hollywood diet craze to Tampa.

The destruction in the grapefruit industry will be awful.

John Stahl has announced the signing of George Barrard, English star, to play opposite Mae Murray in "Peacock Alley."

Lillian Gish, she of the original fame, will go into her first talkie production, Franz Molnar's "The Swan" here for United Artists. The talkies get 'em all in the end.

Laura La Plante and John Boles will co-star in Universal's next super-production "La Marseillaise," according to Carl Laemmle, the younger.

Norma Shearer's new starring vehicle could have to be runners, floats, wheels and wings. It will be an all-weather talkie, featuring the roar of the storm, the murmur of the seafarers, the narcotics patterning of great rain and what have you listed there, Mr. Weather Man?

All incidental to a drama of city life where the only storm the poor little uptown boys and girls ever hear is the storm of an El train or a truck driver blocked at an intersection.

Charles Brabin is going to sea with "The Ship from Shanghai" and will make most of the talkie sequences cut on the Pacific; the first shipboard production.

MISS ORD TELLS SLAYER'S NAME

District Attorney Does Not Reveal Name of Murderer

New Orleans, La., Oct. 18.—Miss Ione Ord, New York artist, has named the killer of Jack Kraft, New York pressman. District Attorney Leander H. Perez of Plaquemines parish, said today.

Before making this statement Perez had Sam Epstein, steward on the steamer Creole, taken from the local prison and rushed to the Plaquemines parish jail at Pointe-a-La-Hache, La. He intimated Epstein was not the man implicated in Miss Ord's alleged confession. He just wanted Epstein "handy," he said. Other than this, he would not say what Miss Ord had told him.

Kraft was killed a week ago yesterday. It was first reported he had leaped from the Creole, but his body showed a bullet wound in the chest. Miss Ord and Epstein were ordered held.

Second Officer John McGouldrick of the Creole, was later involved when Perez announced he would send an officer to New York to arrest him when the Creole docks there.

Britain's Huge Dirigible Proves It Can Fly

Doubt has been removed from the minds of the skeptics who for the past month have been claiming that the R-101, Great Britain's new airship, was a failure. The huge 100-passenger craft has met all tests required of it and it is not unlikely that in the very near future it will wind her way across the Atlantic to pay a visit to the United States.

DERBY LOTTERY HOLDERS OUT

$40,000 Worth of Stubs
Destroyed During Raids

Cleveland, Oct. 18.—Subscribers to lottery tickets for the Canadian-English derby to be run October 30, were simply "out" today while police are believed to have broken up a central distributing point for tickets in derby pools.

More than $40,000 worth of lottery stubs were seized along with checks and orders from supposed lottery agents in Indiana, Pennsylvania and Ohio cities, by police in raids on two houses in southwest Cleveland late last night.

The stubs were for tickets sold here by the Quebec Army and Navy Veteran's association. Their seizure makes worthless the tickets held by subscribers since they are no good unless the stubs are turned in at veterans' headquarters.

Two men, whose names were not revealed by police authorities, were arrested in the raid which was conducted as a result of a "tip" given to Safety Director Edwin D. Barry. The stubs were sorted and packed ready for shipment to Quebec when police invaded the houses.

MITCHELL DENIES RULING REQUEST

Attorney General Will Not Make Formal Decision On Whether Liquor Buying Is Criminal

Washington, Oct. 18.—Att'y. Gen. Mitchell probably will not make any formal ruling as to whether the purchaser of bootleg liquor is equally guilty with the seller, as he has been requested to do by Senator Morris Sheppard of Texas, the so-called "Father of Prohibition."

Mitchell indicated that such a ruling by the Department of Justice would be without weight, and would have to go to the supreme court in any event.

There is now no case pending upon which a test can be made.

The legal experts of the department, however, are making a study of the 18th amendment and the Volstead act preparatory to the institution of a test case as soon as one is available.

Sheppard already has introduced a bill making the buyer of liquor guilty with the seller.

Reputed Gangster
Facing Charges

Cleveland, Oct. 18.—Daniel Ahearn, reputed New York gangster, was held for the grand jury under $5,000 bail today following his release yesterday from City hospital where he has been confined for several weeks with bullet wounds fired by an unidentified gunman. Ahearn is charged with defrauding a local hotel of $147. He pleaded not guilty and waived examination in municipal court here.

Salem Meets Second County Opponent In Wellsville Saturday

Stonemen Expected To Win Fourth Straight Game Of Season Here

Remembering the outcome of the Salem-Wellsville game of 1928 when Floyd Stone was sending the strong Salem High squad into the battle against the apparently weak southern country aggregation intent on winning a decisive verdict and adding another victory to the red and Black's ever-increasing string of wins at Reilly stadium tomorrow afternoon.

Because Salem recalls the fact that the dole went wrong from every way of figuring in last year's contest between the two elevens, the Salem High strategist anticipates no upset from Coach Dave Evans' outfit tomorrow. In fact, although at present, glancing over the record of Wellsville to date this season, Salem should take the Orange and Black by several touchdowns it is very likely that fans will see real battle.

It was a truly grueling affair that was witnessed when the Red and Black was fought to a standstill at Wellsville in 1928 and only a series of breaks gave it a 16-0

Football Menu For Saturday Includes Many Tasty Dishes; Major Clashes On Schenule

BY DAVIS J. WALSH

New York, Oct. 18—They are going to play off a lot of very indecent football—low, coarse football, very boorish, indeed, and very good to look at—before sundown tomorrow. Yes, brother, the boys are going to forget they are gentlemen.

California, for instance, is out to break par for the trans-continental course by playing Pennsylvania at Philadelphia right in the middle of the season, then turning around and going back to Berkeley in time to resume its east schedule the following Saturday. This one ought to be good.

Out at Lincoln, a Pittsburgh team that is said to be its best since the Warner regime, will get itself very much involved with Nebraska, which is no trick at all. The hard part comes when you try to get uninvolved. This one will be good. So will the meeting between Tennessee and Alabama down in old Knoxville. The time may come when they will be paying off with the southern team on this one.

As to that, I have it straight from the management, or something, that Harvard and the Army fully intend to be very firm with each other at Cambridge. This ball game, the first big meeting between eastern teams this year, will be one of the real good ones of the day. There are others almost by the dozens.

Big Ten Games

Every ranking conference is in for a large afternoon. The Big Ten will get under way for a full fall season schedule at the Memorial building next week.

Eight teams have entered the circuit, Joe M. Kelley announced today and there is a possibility that another team will enter before the schedule is drawn up. The teams entered to date are:

Salem News, American Legion, Rotary club, Merchants, two Potters teams, Demings and Mullins.

The schedule will be arranged by Kelley later this week. Games will be played two or three nights each week until the schedule is completed.

Cripples May Start

The same team that worked against Warren will probably get the call tomorrow but Stone will probably insert substitutes frequently if the dole runs true for once and the score runs high on the Salem column. If the lads are able to get around in fairly good shape despite their hurts and play football that approaches the class played against Sim. Earich's combine plenty of reserves will get into action.

Evans' team averages around 155 pounds which means that the team will stack up about even to the group under the instruction of Messrs. Stone and McCord. It weight probably neither team will have the advantage; Wellsville might be aide by a bit of overconfidence on Salem's part and then too will be battling as it has seldom before in an effort to trim Salem.

New Haven—Connecticut, her white pines will follow chestnut trees in being completely eliminated from her soil. A pest of blaster rust is attacking the white pines, and while the state is spending $15,000 a year to combat the rust, the state agricultural experiment station here fears the worst.

The east itself is promising quite a ruction. Exclusive to the California-Pennsylvania and Harvard-Army games, this section is sending Brown, winner over Princeton, against Yale; Princeton against Cornell; Carnegie Tech against W. & J., arch rivals, this pair; Dartmouth against Columbia, and Fordham against Holy Cross. Lafayette vs Bucknell and N. Y. U. vs Penn State are two more standout games

You have to be very good to beat the Huskers anywhere, but particularly at Lincoln.

Tennessee and Alabama seem to be the power teams of the south, although the former outscored its rival considerably against Mississippi. That will mean less than nothing when the whistle blows, however. Georgia, having smeared Yale, ought to be ready with plenty of fight against North Carolina, winner over Tech, national champions of 1928. The latter will have to come back against Florida, which isn't easy to do, or admit that it doesn't belong this year.

Iowa was beaten only a point by Ohio State and must be accepted as a live one against Illinois State plays its big game with Michigan, already beaten by Purdue, while the Northwestern-Minnesota meeting, judging through their respective victories over Wisconsin and Vanderbilt, should be a "wowsers," sure enough. As for Notre Dame, it looks like 2 to 1 against Wisconsin.

Harvard has quite a chance against the Army's uncertain line. Cagle on no Army, but there is little to go on with Carnegie Tech and W. & J. also with Yale and Brown, Cornell and Princeton and Fordham and Holy Cross. The former looked like a million against N. Y. U. but lost a couple of stars in the midst of the excitement. This may be enough to swing the thing the other way.

Algerian Rebels Attack Frenchmen

Paris, Oct. 18.—Algerian Rebels attacked a column of the French Foreign Legion near Djilani and inflicted heavy casualties upon the European troops, according to a dispatch received here today from Gran, Algeria.
The Foreign Legion lost 50 men in dead and wounded, the dispatch stated.
The French War Ministry stated it had no confirmation of the dispatch.

Beautiful hair!

Modern hair dressers arrange the hair so beautifully that it's bound to attract attention. That's why it's so important to guard its color and to keep it in perfect condition.
There is no surer, simpler way to do this than with Danderine. Each time you use your brush just moisten it with this delicately fragranced liquid. Then as you draw it through your hair, it removes the excess oil, brings out the natural color, makes the hair fairer, sparkle with new life and lustre.
How much easier it is to arrange the hair afterwards. How it stays in place. And try "setting" the waves with Danderine. They stay in so much longer!

Danderine quickly dissolves the crust of dandruff, puts the scalp in the pink of condition; helps the hair to grow long, silky and abundant!

MULCH PREVENTS WINTER INJURY

Mulch shrubs and other perennials after the ground is frozen over to prevent winter injury from alternate freezing and thawing, to keep the soil from drying out and to retard growth in late winter.

The protection afforded by winter mulch is not from freezing but from alternate freezing and thawing, says A. H. Nehrung, of the Hill Floral Products Co., and floriculturists of the Horticultural Department of the Ohio Agricultural Experiment Station and Ohio State University. If the plants are not mulched a few warm days in late winter may start bud development too soon, resulting in so-called winter killing.

With evergreens there is a certain amount of transpiration or water loss all through the winter. A mulch applied in the fall prevents the soil from drying out and provides the plants with sufficient moisture to overcome the loss from transpiration.

Many herbaceous perennials retain a rosette or crown of leaves throughout the winter. Unless the winter moisture is prevented from collecting in this rosette the crown is likely to rot. Mulching material over the crown will prevent the collection of water and save the plant.

Several different kinds of mulching materials are suggested. Well-rotted stable manure, is probably the favorite, but it is not often obtainable in the desired condition. Well-prepared stable manure is an excellent mulch, as it protects the plants and adds fertility throughout the winter by leaching.

Peat moss is excellent. It may be obtained in bales or bags, and is applied moist or immediately wet down to keep it from blowing away. Peat moss adds humus when cultivated into the soil in the spring.

Salt hay, a grass of the Atlantic seashore, may be used as a mulch for perennials. It may be obtained in bales. It has the advantage of being light and long like timothy, it is free from weed seeds.

Spruce boughs are particularly desirable for rock plants. The boughs are laid over the plants and in case of evergreens prevent the burning of foliage. Cast-off Christmas trees are also admirable for mulching rock plants or evergreens.

SECOND FLOWER DAY WOOSTER, OCT. 31

The second Flower Day for commercial florists is to be held at the Ohio Experiment Station at Wooster on October 31.

A program of interest to commercial growers is being arranged to start at 10 a. m. It will include talks on insects, disease propagation, recent developments in rose growing, and the new work in floriculture at Ohio State University. At 1 p. m. Director Williams will welcome the guests. Following this the results of experimental work in floriculture at the station will be given. Growers will have an opportunity to get first hand information from the experiments which they can put into practice before it appears in bulletin form.

A. H. Nehrung, of the Hill Floral Products Co., and floriculturists of the Experiment Station staff and of the Ohio Agricultural Experiment Station and Ohio State University will appear on the program. W. W. Wiggin, floriculturist in charge urges growers to bring their problems for discussion.

On November 2 and 3, following the program for the florists, the station will hold open house, when the public is invited to go through the greenhouses, inspect the work and see the flowers at their best.

DAIRY CATTLE NEED GRAIN WITH PASTURE

One of the leeks on the dairy farm is caused by permitting the cows on fall pasture to become thin in flesh and to decline in milk production when they should be laying on flesh and growing a long coat of hair in preparation for winter, according to dairymen at the Ohio Agricultural Experiment Station.

More liberal winter feeding will be necessary to replace the flesh lost, and the milk production, they find, cannot be brought back to what it otherwise would have been.

Unfortunately, her diet was to blame. For in her menus she had neglected to include dishes with that all-important element—roughage. The result was constipation which was poisoning her system—stealing her beauty.

What a pity so many women and men do not realize the value of roughage! And more—do not know that Kellogg's ALL-BRAN—a delicious cereal—can supply roughage and bring sure relief from constipation!

Why ALL-BRAN is so effective

Kellogg's ALL-BRAN furnishes bulk in most generous quantity. This bulk absorbs moisture

Coal Companies See

"THE SINGLE STANDARD" Greta Garbo proves the adage about absence making the heart grow fonder in her smashing return to the screen in "The Single Standard," which is at the State theater as a new presentation, with a synchronized sound score.

After making "Wild Orchids" Miss Garbo went home to Sweden for four months amid rumors that she was not to return. She did return and brought with her a brand new Garbo to the screen, a creature of strange fascination and of even more potent lure than of yore.

In many ways, "The Single Standard" is a distinct triumph for the exotic Swedish star. It is her first 100 per cent-American role and presents the greatest of all her film characterizations.

Adela Rogers St. John, who wrote the sensational novel from which the picture was filmed, has been quoted as pronouncing Greta "100 per cent perfect" as the heroine of the spicy romantic drama and it is obvious that these sentiments will be echoed by the world of Garbo fans.

Nils Asther and Johnny Mack Brown split leading man honors in the new Garbo feature. Both are splendidly cast and although playing widely divergent roles, keep pace with each other in highly creditable performances.

The picture has been screened with an eye for pictorial beauty and the yachting scenes are particularly effective in romantic charm as well as dramatic power. Scenes filmed beneath the surface of the water add to the intriguing South Sea episodes and the manner in which Robertson injected a child-like tranquility into the unconventional life aboard the old windjammer is little short of masterful.

Included in the supporting cast of the film are Dorothy Sebastian, Robert Castle, Kathryn Williams, Lane Chandler and others of note.

"FROZEN RIVER"

Rin-Tin-Tin, again delighted his many loyal fans at the Royal last night when his latest picture, "Frozen River," was disclosed. Rinty used his powers with discrimination and good dramatic effect and acted with great fidelity.

"Frozen River" is one of the most pleasing of Rinty's pictures. Located in the northern wilderness, it has atmosphere, colorful incident and strong, melodrama situations and climaxes. It will arouse the interest and enthusiasm of any audience.

The human support of the star includes Davey Lee, Raymond McKee, Nina Quartero, Josef Swickard, Frank Campeau, Lew Harvey and others.

The dialogue, music and sound accompaniment serve to heighten the drama.

As a wolf-raised dog who returns to mankind, Rinty helps discover a hidden gold cache, save a woman's honor and rescue a little boy from death.

Compressed air cartridges are placed in drill holes and discharged by electrical contact from outside the mine, eliminating the danger of subsequent dust explosions.

The compressed air method has no detonation, the discharge taking the form of a "gigantic push" from the rear of the seams, dislodging the coal without loosening rock roof above the seams.

The new method will also result in increased production, it was declared, as it permits miners to return to their work of loading cars within a few minutes after the coal has been released from the veins.

Almost beyond belief are some of the endorsements given Owa-Ton-Na by sufferers from rheumatism, lumbago and neuritis. Many cases who have suffered even as long as twenty years testify to the marvelous benefit that Owa-Ton-Na brings when properly used.

Mr. George H. Miller, 17 Roosevelt Ave., Salem, Ohio, says: "For some time, my system has been far from in good condition. My kidneys have been giving me a great deal of trouble. Backaches were with me almost daily. I was forced to get up several times at night to relieve my kidneys. This disturbed my sleep and many times I would be as tired in the morning as when I went to bed."

"I would have frequent attacks of sourness and gas and it seemed that I was always constipated. Although I have only been taking Owa-Ton-Na a short time, I feel that I can recommend this fine old Indian remedy to any one who suffers from rheumatism. It just seems to cleanse the system from top to bottom. My kidneys are acting better, I sleep better and my bowels are functioning normally."

HOME-MAKING HELPS

By Wanda Barton

"Two things I'll never descend to," said the newly engaged Young Person, eagerly discussing her housekeeping plans. "I'll never wear gingham aprons, and we're never going to have any meal whatsoever in the kitchen."

She was very positive about it. "Eating in the kitchen, was a symbol. It indicated a decline in the elegancies — a sort of domestic slump, like getting slatternly after the first five years of married life.

"We're always going to have a properly set table, and a dining room and nice linen and a few flowers," she continued, dreamily gazing into space. She was safe enough about the linen — having just emerged from an overwhelming shower of linens and lace presented by a large circle of affectionate friends. And by the time she has completed her apartment hunt, she will probably modify her views about the lowly habit of eating in the kitchen.

For nowadays the best people do it. In the very expensive apartments where space is carefully measured out, if there's a kitchen at all, it is quite sure to have as an adjunct a "breakfast nook" — which is merely a built-in table flanked by high-backed benches on both sides. But this equipment is in the kitchen and the only partition may be the settle backs.

It's an excellent arrangement for those who do little entertaining and thus do not actually require a separate, well-fitted dining-room, but who do eat at home sufficiently often to want comfortable serving arrangements. Especially is this a great convenience in the servantless household. If there's no maid to serve courses or change dishes, it's exceedingly awkward for the housewife to travel between kitchen and dining room — and this is mitigated somewhat by the kitchen-dining room combination.

Incidentally, even in these houses where there isn't the dining alcove and a table is laid in the kitchen itself, the sight need not be an unattractive one. Our modern kitchens with their bright colors in equipment, on floors and walls, with gay cretonnes at the window, may be very attractive spots. So-called kitchen sets consisting of a little round table lacquered in gay colors and with chairs to match, to furnish the kitchen delightfully. Or bright tablecloths with napkins to match, are informal and cheerful — daintily as well as adequate for simple home service for two.

The kitchen has graduated from its once humble position as the least attractive room in the house. In fact, many of our kitchens, equipped with modern labor savers, and with color schemes and decorations carefully selected, actually are the most

STYLE EDICTS

Paris, Oct. 18 — Moonlight blue is one of the newest winter shades which will probably have great vogue for it looks well both day and night and is generally becoming to most women whether blond or bronde.

One of the designers is using it in the new tulle with the border spotted with chenille in the same soft tone. The cross-over short corset shows this light spotted border and is pouched slightly over moulded hips. From these gatherers are panels composed of endless rows of tulle petals edged with the chenille spots.

Corn-flower blue that suggests a summer sky was much in evidence on the opening day of the Longchamp races. Bright scarlets also stood out like blazing peonies and there were mignonette greens like young saplings. Green promises to be a favorite shade both in the Victorian-olive and the 18th century blue green which goes so well with the feminine curves coming into favor again.

Geranium and other shades of red will be popular. White is always lovely, especially for the Grecian type of evening gown one dealer is making, the chiffon being wonderfully draped in effective lengths with scarves and neck arrangements carried high up around the neck or tied in a bow on one shoulder.

The designer is also making charming combinations of soft chiffons and velvets, with the main note usually chosen in the palest blushing pink that is as faint as the tone of a pearl against ruby red or navy blue.

Stunning Tweed Frock

PATTERN 8796

Salem News 15c Practical Pattern

8796

SUITABLE for sports, shopping or any informal occasion, is this clever tweed dress with its overblouse effect. The long bodice line and the crossed vestee give a very slender appearance. The snug hip band with inserted pockets, and the narrow skirt pleats are added features of interest.

Mixed tweed should be chosen for Design 8796 — brown and tan, black, red and grey, green, beige and black — and white or tan pique for the vestee. Large bone buttons trim the frock in front, and a tiny colorful kerchief adds chic. Other suitable fabrics are wool, crepe, jersey, flannel and kasha.

May be obtained only in sizes 14, 16, 18, 20, 32, 34, 36, 38, 40 and 42. Size 36 requires 3 1/2 yards tweed, 54 inches wide, and 1 1/2 yard of pique.

This model is easy to make. No dressmaking experience is necessary. Each pattern comes to you with simple and exact instructions, including yardage for every size. A perfect fit is guaranteed.

Patterns will be delivered upon receipt of FIFTEEN CENTS (15c) in cash, or by mail, or by mail order. Be sure to write plainly your NAME, ADDRESS, STYLE NUMBER and SIZE wanted.

Our LATEST FASHION BOOK will be sent upon receipt of TEN CENTS (10c) in cash, or by mail order. Send orders to SALEM NEWS Pattern Department, 243 West 17th Street, New York City.

OHIO girl is a Prize Winner...

"LAVADA was a bottle baby and so was very delicate," says Mrs. Rose Temple, 5833 Pearl Road, Cleveland. "She seemed to have trouble with her stomach and bowels; couldn't digest her food right; was constipated.

"California Fig Syrup has changed all that; and made her a different girl. It regulated her bowels quickly, improved her appetite and digestion. She has had no trouble since; but has continued to gain until today friends say she's a regular prize winner for health."

Mothers by thousands, are praising California Fig Syrup. Physicians endorse it. A pure vegetable product; it is safe for any child. The prompt relief it brings bilious, headache, constipated children lasts; because it helps tone and strengthen bowels and stomach. Appetite increases; digestion improves with its use. A youngster's entire system benefits. Next time bad breath, coated tongue or feverishness warn of constipation try it with your child and see how it helps.

When buying, look for the name California; that marks the genuine product, famous for 50 years.

Try Magnesia For Indigestion

People who suffer from indigestion usually have tried pepsi, charcoal, drugs and various digestive aids and got little more than slight temporary relief—sometimes not even that.

But before giving up to chronic dyspepsia, just try the effect of a little Bisulat Magnesia—not the ordinary commercial carbonate, citrate or milk but pure Bisulat Magnesia which you can obtain from practically any druggist. It's either powder or tablet form.

Take a teaspoonful of the powder or four tablets with a little water after your next meal, and see what a difference this makes. It will instantly neutralize the dangerous, harmful acid in the stomach which now causes your food to ferment and sour, making gas, wind, flatulence, heartburn and the bloated or heavy, lumpy feeling that seems to follow most everything you eat. You can enjoy your meals without a fear of indigestion. Adv.

Czarist Treasures
With Pawn Broker

Paris, Oct. 18.—The greatest hoard of imperial art treasures of modern times is now resting democratically in the vaults of an ordinary pawnbroking establishment, it is informed, reaching Russian ex-royalty here is correct.

All that the Czars of all the Russians have been able to save up through the centuries in jewelry, rare lace, fine art or plane lucre, altogether worth about $10,000,000, is now reported to be deposited in a Jugo-slavian safe deposit vault awaiting the pleasure of a Lenin-grad pawnbroking company.

These valuables are said to be well traveled. It is insinuated that they made frequent excursions from the Imperial Palace to Uncle's place even long before the Revolution. Gen. Wrangel and his White Russian troops once escorted them to safety by the shores of the Adriatic sea.

General Wrangel even formed a committee of handicapped men to care for them. This committee went to Belgrade, Yugoslavia, in an effort to place the collection in a bank there, but the bank would not have the risk.

So the pawnbrokers to whom the lot is pledged, took a chance and engaged an ordinary safe deposit vault. News of the transaction has reached certain Russian exiles anxious about valuables in which they claim an interest.

British capitalists went to buy the collection for cash, but Wrangel's committee hesitates. And the pawnbroker says: "No ticket, no goods."

Talkie In Paris
Starts With Bang

Paris, Oct. 18.—The production of talkies in Paris got underway with a bang and as a result Enrico Rivero, handsome leading man, is in the hospital nursing a gunshot wound.

The accident is expected to show local producers that they can not be too careful in taking the old "pistol shot and a dull thud" out of the subtitles and making the audience hear them.

The scene was "shot" in a sound-proof studio. Rivero was to gallop across the countryside on his gallant steed while Gabriel Gabrio fired at him.

Benito Perojo, director of the picture, feared that the rifle shot would not have enough punch in it so he put an extra charge and an extra piece of wadding in the blank cartridge.

Rivero galloped across the scenic countryside. Wham! His horse reared and threw him. The thud was not very dull, nor was it in the scenario.

Besides contusions suffered in the fall Rivero has a large piece of wadding in his shoulder. He will live and the picture will have one punchy rifle shot if the scenario writer can revamp the sequence to the scene where the villain was supposed to have fired and missed but didn't.

Fifteen-year-old Arveta Rognier the country's youngest parachute jumper, who in a recent exhibition at Roosevelt Field, Long Island, leaped from a plane 2,200 feet in the air and fell 1,000 feet before her parachute could be opened. The girl's pluck finally saved her, for she disentangled her foot from the pulley cord and made a safe landing. Her mother, who was in the horrified crowd who watched her dizzy descent through space, fainted.
